SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE Third Judicial District of the State of Utah, county of Salt Lake.—Sue B. Elect-plaintiff, va. J. M. Kennedy, Neilte work of the state when it is prepared to take hold."

Pursuant to this declaration, and consistent with it, an organization was effected in December last with a membership of thirteen ladies, since which time it has grown until it now has more than eighty names upon its roil, composed of males and females, among whom are numbered ministers, professional men and some of our most enterprising business men.

The work of the association has not been that of holding weekly meetings in which the time was spent in discussing vague theories and in passing panegyrica upon the dead masters; but it has been practical and valuable to the community.
